

Curriculum vitae Dr. Matthias Schenek

Date of birth: 21 June 1962

Place of birth: Esslingen a. N.

Marital status: married, 1 child

Professional career

---

- 07/15: Re-election as Head of Administration of the University of Freiburg
- 10/13–09/15: Speaker for the Heads of Administration of Baden-Württemberg Universities
- 04/08: Head of Administration of the University of Freiburg
- 03/03–03/08: Consultant at the Baden-Württemberg State Ministry of Science and Research as deputy head of department
- Basic principles of research; research, technology, and innovation policy
  - Administrative supervision of several research areas in the natural sciences and external research institutions
  - Chairperson of the administrative committee of MFO GmbH
  - In charge of dissolving the Academy for the Estimation of Technological Consequences in Baden-Württemberg
- 10/00–03/03: Consultant at the Baden-Württemberg State Ministry of Science and Research
- Activity in the ‘mirror department’ (Spiegelreferat) of the Ministry of Science and Research
  - Management of the head office of the innovation committee of the state government
- 01/97–09/00: Consultant at the Baden-Württemberg State Ministry of Science and Research
- Legal affairs of the offices of student services
  - Expert and legal advice in implementing the Law on Support for Education and Training (BAföG) in Baden-Württemberg
  - In charge of the development and implementation of electronic BAföG applications in Baden-Württemberg
- 08/94: Ph.D. in law (University of Tübingen); topic of dissertation: “Genetic Engineering Legislation in the European Community. European Policy on Biotechnology and the Regulation of Genetic Engineering”
- 01/94–12/96: Work as attorney in Stuttgart
- 03/92–12/93: Research assistant at the University of Tübingen
- 04/89–01/92: Judicial service training at the Landgericht (district court) in Stuttgart
- 10/82–01/89: Studies in law in Tübingen

Awards

---

- 1994: Award from the Rheinhold and Maria Teufel Foundation for academic excellence